OTIS SKINNER

A most interesting period in blacory, both to the author, playwright and amoustment for the Fifteenth and the beginning of the Six teenth centuries. These were rimes when a man's actions, and not his words, counted his worth. Deeds of value were an everyday occurrence, and men riched their flives on the slightest pricet. It is at this period that the sense of Citis Sainner's new play "A Soldier of Fortuno" are laid, the action taking place in Italy. The first act is located near Plea, where are laid, the action taking place in Italy. The first act is located near Plas, where the French soldiers are emaniped, and shows the interior of one of the large toning the state of the large toning the state of the large toning the strength of the bridge of St. Trinita, which is painted from the official of the great subset. In the third act is shown the hardone curdens attached to the palace of the bornias in Home, and in the last as a some interior, being a reproduction of a reem in a castle

Home, and in the last of being a reproduction of once the property of a story loid is that of a interpolation in the French arm; the distilke of the all popular and is with his min their, which he did not have cleared himself.

The following is the reportoire: Tuesday, a great production of "Begraf Student," in which opera the Southern prima donna Mirs Alice Johnson will sing bor famous song "Baby," and Mirs Carle will introduce her creation of the "Glove." to be followed by "Mikado." "Fra Disvalo," "Paul Johnson," "Bohemlan Girt," "Merry War" and "Ship Ahoy," This will be Grau's only appearance in Houston.

Ills Condition Precarious. Texas Medical association, was seen by a reporter at the Bristol last night. He is 10 here in attendance on George Staley, who is in a precarious condition, the result of an unfortunate accident at Garrison a few an unfortunate accident at Garrison a few days ago. He was caught by a noiseless cage in a mine and forced into a sitting position with his head between his knees, sustaining a dislocation of the backbone and perhaps mortal injury to the spinal cord. Mr Staley is paralyzed in the lower limbs and unable to move himself. Dr Smith was called to Garrison by wire and brought Mr. Staley to the St. Joseph's infirmary in this city. He will leave for Wharton tomorrow, however hard it is to forego the pleasant friendships and hospitalities afforded in Houston.
